

Where Does Our Innocence Go?

What happens to the innocence of children,
When do we all stop playing,
Why are we taught to hate,
And where does our innocence go?

What would happen if we didn't judge others?
If we looked past the colour of our skin
If we accepted others for who they are
If we embraced their race and culture

What would happen if we stopped the labels?
We could all be known as unique,
Our lives would not be determined by our image,
And we would not be trapped in the boxes

What would happen if we loved everyone?
If our world could work together
Society wouldn't tell us we aren't good enough
Hope would have a place to flow

Why can't we all be like children?
Why does our innocence go?
Maybe we can still learn to love everyone
And the darkness of hate won't grow.
